American Musical Theatre of San Jose invites teachers to nominate student members of your production team who have excelled onstage and behind the scenes. Teachers should nominate students who they feel made outstanding contributions to the production and would greatly benefit from further instruction:

- Each school may nominate two students for outstanding achievement in technical work (ideally, one male and one female). Technical categories include, but are not limited to: stage management, lighting, sound, costume, hair/makeup, and set design. After receiving all of the nomination applications, the names of those students will be placed into a random drawing and two student's names will be picked by AMTSJ's Board of Directors to receive scholarships to American Musical Theatre of San Jose's Technical Theatre Institute Summer 2008. There may be more than two scholarship recipients depending upon contributions in any given year.
- Each school may nominate two students for outstanding achievement in performance in a lead or supporting role (ideally, one male and one female). After receiving all of the nomination applications, the names of those students will be placed into a random drawing and two student's names will be picked by AMTSJ's Board of Directors to receive scholarships to American Musical Theatre of San Jose's Theatre Arts Conservatory Summer 2008. There may be more than two scholarship recipients depending upon contributions in any given year.
